Motion being made by m<sup>r</sup> Henry Wigington that the Govern<sup>r</sup> be acquainted that this House is already Qualified./

Being return'd reported to the House that they had acquainted the Govern<sup>r</sup> & Council of the Same

A message ffrom the Govern<sup>r</sup> and Council by m<sup>r</sup> Jo: Barnwell desireing this House to attend them Imediately

M<sup>r</sup> Speaker and the House Return'd and m<sup>r</sup> Speak<sup>r</sup>: Reasum'd the Chair and Inform'd the House that the Govern<sup>r</sup> had Deliver'd a Coppy of his Speech to him to prevent mistakes/
Gentlemen,/

Since my Comeing to the Govern<sup>t</sup>: I have Endeavoured to make y<sup>e</sup> Law my Rule and was carefull accordingly to call a Parliament within the time Limited, but you all know how ffoolishly these Gentlemen disapointed both the Countrey themselves and me ffor thô they had a Law to Guide and direct them (which if I should in any other Case, have pretended to dispencc with I am Sattisffied they would have been the ffirst to have Condemned that Dispenccing power) yet they now pretend to blame me ffor not granting it But Pardon me Gentlemen If I cannot let this pass without an Observation that Such men of unsteady and Censorious Principles so visible in other Respects (as Some of those were) cannot help makeing their Hypocrisy appeare in more Essentiall things in being Ignorant or Wavering, as to what Church they belong to, a Crime I think unpardonable in Such as proposed themselves (to the Countrey) ffit to make Laws, and yet were wanting and Ignorant in that great Law to themselves in being at a loss and Hessitateing (at those years) in what man'er to Serve their great Creatour/

But the Quick Applicacon Gentlemen you have made to Qualify your Selves gives me a ffair prospect and hopes that you will not be wanting in your Duty both to God and the Publick/

In the first place in finishing what may be still thought necessary towards the Sure and Lasting Establishment in this Province of Our Infant Church of England with Suitable Encouragement to those, that are willing and desirous to come into her Com<sup>m</sup>union, for the more it is Envey'd and Struck at by a Dissenter agent in England and Restless and Censorious Spirits here, though under Colour of more plausible pretences of Conscience and Liberty, by so much the more I hope you will Endeavour to lay its foundation the Stronger and firmer and Convince the World in so good a Cause that you are neither discouraged nor affraid whatever mourns without, or a Snarling, Imperious, positive, self Conceited proud and haughty prelate within us (that no warning or patience or at last Severity could make Sensible of his miscarriage to the Government) may Report or Preach to the Contrary, in Easely Vilifying undervaluing and Censuring our Church Act, and proceedings upon it, yet maugre that and other Reflections, you will approve your selves no Januses to the Church as he hath done in taking part with her Hypocritical Pretenders and Declared Enemys, but that you will act like what you are, true Sons of your Mother the Church of England to the Disapointment of her false heart'd friends and more open Enemyes/

As to Civill affairs I have only to Recom<sup>d</sup>end to you Gentlemen

1st To Rectify the mistakes the last assembly was Guilty of to the great discouragement of many of the Inhabitants and the lessning, if not almost ruin of the publick Creditt by that hardship (if not Injustice) to receive and not willing to discount, were a Just Debt was due from the publick as well as appropriating the Severall funds, so as not to Consider Cassualties which Occasioned a great Clamour and Seveer Reflections and Censure upon the publick Receiv<sup>r</sup>., and had the Cryes of those whose slaves was forced to y<sup>e</sup> Publick Service When their Families in the mean time Starved for want of their Just dues and my selfe Obliged to the uneasiness of Continually hearing those Just Complaints without being able to administer any Releif./

But Gentlemen I recom<sup>d</sup>end it to you, and hope you will Inspect and Correct those Unhappy Circumstances, we have layn under, for I do not doubt but you will find Sufficient ffunds to answer (In time) all our Publick Occasions without thinking to lay new Burdens upon the Collony who have Sufficently sett the load of Our Missfourtnes, without ffurther pressure ffrom our Selves, Those of buying dear and Selling Cheap being what our poor Planters have long groaned under and without hopes of Remidy, if not ffrom your Prudence in finding some Expedient to Ease them./

2<sup>dly</sup> My Duty obleidges me, to give you warning as I did the last assembly of the danger and hazard we are Expos'd to ffor want of some regulation in the Indian Trade, ffor the management of those that now go abroad upon that account are grown Numerous to what they were fformerly in that trade and ffor their particular Intrest deal so Unjustly and Rigoursly with the Indians, that I have Continuall Complaints, so that I greatly ffear the Consequence, if you do not find out some way to secure us ffrom the apparent hazard we dayly are liable to, if methods of prevention are not taken very Speedily. I would not have you think Gentlemen that either relations or any particular Intrest will have or hath any byass with me were the Safety of the publick is in Danger therefore be Assured Gentlemen I will heartily Joyn with you in this or what else may Conduce to our Peace and Security/

3<sup>dly</sup> To alter the Gauge of your Barrells of Pitch and Tarr, not that our most Gracious Sovereign the Queen hath given us so ffair a prospect of proffitt to Shipp it home, and I think if some method Could be thought of to Encourage Shipping to Come and ffetch it, will Require your Serious thoughts, as also Severe penalties upon those that shall Steal lightwood ffrom their Lords<sup>pps</sup>: Lands or their Neighbours and to make it ffelony without benefitt of Clergy, willfully to Sett fire to any uncovered Tarrkiln or Pitch and Tarr in Barrells, as in like cases, ffiring Houses and Barnes &c<sup>a</sup>./

4<sup>thly</sup>: As I fformerly recom'ended to the late house, so I do againe to you, the unreasonable Hucstering and fforestalling in this Town, to that End that you would think of haveing a Markett and regulation of Weights ffor it is a Crying Sin to See what light bread is Imposed upon those that are necessitated to by it nay even when Corne is Cheap./

Affair also ffor buying and Selling of horses and Cattle and Sheep would be altogether necessary, now that horses are become plentiful and Oxen fitt ffor the Plow, would I doubt not find Vent as well as a great Convenience to Encourage grazing and Butchers to Supply the Town with greater plenty and better meat./

5<sup>thly</sup>. A Magazine ffor your Stores of powder Bullett and other warlike tooles Necessary is greatly wanting

6<sup>thly</sup> That you also Explaine that part of the act of Duty upon Slaves Imported, ffor I beleive it was never meant or Intended to discourage Strangers with their Slaves to Come and Settle amongst us, but only such to pay the Duty as were Imported ffor Sale and proffitt./

7<sup>thly</sup>. What I recomended to the last Parliament I must to you, the Constitution which last was, Some years Since, Sent for your approbacion and I think it was their (the neglected) Duty as it is yours to give their Lordships an Answer whether you are Dissatisfied in the whole sceam of the Govern<sup>t</sup>. their laid down by them, or Some particulars, but if either it is but reasonable you should draw up the Reasons of your dislike, that if the Councill here cannot on their behalfe give you Satisfaction they may be transmitted to their Lord<sup>pps</sup>: whom we doubt not will be willing to give you all reasonable Satisfaction./

8<sup>thly</sup>. To Inquire into the Reasons that Act is so much neglected in Tolleing of Cattle that Comes to Town and were Impracticable to mend it

9<sup>thly</sup>: That you appoint a Committee to look over your old acts and those necessary to Renew them and add or Diminish what is necessary in others./

10<sup>thly</sup> And fforther I Recomend to you, that you will Call to a Strict Account the Publick Receiv<sup>r</sup>: or any others that have touched any of the Publick moneys, that those malitiose, unreasonable or Factious Persons, that have continually been Censuring and bespattering the Government that the Publick moneys have been Clandestinely made use of, to particular mens Intrest and proffitts, may be made Slanderers and lyers in the most publick man'er you posible Can, to the Satisfaction of our planters who have been so frequently buz'd in the Ears with that and other Villanous Stories only ffor Some particular Self Intrest of the base fforgers of them and this matter Gentlemen I think will Require your particular Care/

11<sup>thly</sup>. I cannot leave you Gentlemen without this further Remarke w<sup>ch</sup>: I have freequently taken notice of that nothing Conduces more to the Disturbing the Peace and breach of Charity and Divideing us further amongst our Selves, then the Spreading false Reports, malicious Suggestions and Scandalous Refflections without any Just grounds upon the Government and those Concerned in it, with a Design to discourage those of our Friends and pleaseing those that Nothing will Sattisfy but the Goverment in their own hands or haveing it Cast into their Antimonarchial modle and Principles./

But I hope Gentlemen you will thinke of makeing an act this Sessions to discontenance and deterr Such Injurious and Insolent Spreaders of Such misgrounded and malicious Reports, and make it very penall, and so shall Conclude with desiring you to loose no time but to make what Dispatch you possibly can that you may Returne to the management of your own affair, Planting time drawing near/

With Joy we take notice how particularly in the ffirst place your Hon<sup>r</sup> has Recommended Religion as it is the protestant Religion Established by Law In the Church of England. And Wee the Representatives of the people ffollowing your good Example will Endeavour to Consider it, as Parliaments in all ages have done, that is, as a part of Our Laws and a necessary part of Our Government.

It is no Doubt a Duty which we owe to God and ourselves to the present Age and to Posterity to Improve the Opportunities God gives us of fenceing our Vineyard; and making the Hedge about it as Strong as we can, And we dont at all Question that your Hon<sup>r</sup>: will be ffound wanting in any thing which the prudence and Justice of this Assembly can propose as Expedient ffor so good, so peaceable and so excellent a purpose: /

In the Next place it is with a like and equall Joy and Satisfaction we behold your Hon<sup>r</sup>: directing your Considerations upon the Safety and Hon<sup>r</sup> of the Government both which are then best Provided ffor when we keep up the strength and Reputation of Our Publick Credditt, are Carefull that those persons are paid to whome the Countrey is Indebted, by making and Executing good and wholesome laws and by providing agst— the Com'on Enemy.

But with unconceivable Regreet and Sorrow we cant but Observe, with your Hon<sup>r</sup>. to what a strange kind of perplexity Some Men Labour to Reduce this Goverment. The ffalse slanderous and absurd Reports that flie about this place agst an administration that has been so easy and happy, Give us to know who are the authors of them, even those who are Enimes to our peace Enimes to themselves, and Enimes to their Countrey who both at home and abroad labour and practise to bring about new Changes and Revolutions in the Goverment yet lett it be Lawfull to provoke and Challenge the most Disconted and most unsatisfied Sperits amongst them to Shew the time if he can Since we became a Collony wherein there were ffewer greivances and less Causes of Complaint then there is at present: Who doth not see that there are in all Goverments difficulties more then enough, tho they mett with no Intestine divisions, difficulties that the united Endeavours of a State can hardly Struggle with. But after all is done that can be by our most Implacable Enimes, we are assured your Hon<sup>r</sup> will Remaine insuperable and Continue to your last breath a hearty and Zealous patron of the Church and Patriot of yo<sup>r</sup> Countrey. /
